On the Agenda

Friday, February 26

8:00 AM Continental Breakfast

8:30 AM Decoding Generational Differences & Employee Motivation

Jim Geffert, Dale Carnegie

How does a "fifty-something" relate to a "twenty-something"? How does a "twenty-something" relate a "fifty-something"? Today's employees are far different from those of the past. To thrive in this new world, you must understand the values and attitudes of both veteran and emerging professionals.

9:30 AM Employment Law Update

Molly Cherry, Nexsen Pruet

This session will provide you with the tools you need to know about recent employment law changes.

10:30 AM Growing Your Business in a Recession

Elliott Davis Capital Partners

The recession has adversely affected many businesses. This session will explore ways any business can increase both its top and bottom lines despite a recession. The speaker will note the options a company has, the issues that should be addressed, and will note some pitfalls to avoid. This session will focus on practical solutions, not theory.

12:00 PM Harbour Club Luncheon

12:30 PM Alternative Financing

Harry Huntley, CPA, JEDA/Invest SC

Alternative financing refers to getting business capital from a source other than a bank, a private party or an investor, all of which are considered to be sources of traditional financing (or "lenders"). Most lenders require that business owners meet strict credit and collateral requirements before they can qualify for any form of traditional business financing, which isn't often easy for a small business owner to do. Attend this session and learn more about alternative financing.

1:30 PM Accounting Update

Dr. Don Schunk, Coastal Carolina Univ BB&T Center for Economic and Community Development

This session is designed to cover the most recent professional standards, staff positions and interpretations issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB). In addition, IRFS and the "codification project" will be addressed.

3:00 PM Economic Outlook

Charleston Southern University Professors

This session will provide an overview of the major indicators regularly used to assess the short-and long-term health of the economy, from the national to the local level. In addition, this session will provide an update on the current state of the economy and what we may expect to see in the coming years.
